

Waterlilys

Sometimes a few good moments of bliss and silence make up for just the right impulse to create ... on his first solo CD "Waterlilys" Guitarist Richard Schumacher did just this, took up the guitar and recorded a beautiful variety of mostly acoustic tunes, trying to allow for the narrative flow to tell its own story ... with the masterful accompaniment of Will Kennedy, Marcio Doctor and Munyungo Jackson, the emphasis focuses on the musical landscape, allowing for the improvisations to develop at their natural pace, trying to capture the beauty of the moment ... wonderfully recorded with his classical guitar and western guitars, nonetheless Richard's Fender Telecaster plays no small role, seamlessly intertwining, crying and speaking to the heart ...
